

Attribute- object or animal associate with a particular personage

Axis Mundi- world axis

Colonnade- a row of columns that supports something, such as a roof

Damnatio Memoriae- literally “condemnation of memory,” to remove someone from official records, often through the destruction of art that references them

High Relief- have greater mass and project from their backgrounds than low relief. Sometimes are not completely attached to background

Low Relief- relief carving with little depth

Stacked Perspective- when objects are stacked one on top of another to convey depth (stacked, but do not overlap)

Wet Drapery- exaggerated drapery of clothing that clings to the body and appears transparent